[House Bill, No. 10.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, May 3d, 1864.—Read first and second times, referred to the Military Committee and ordered to be printed.

[By Mr. Perkins.]

A BILL

To amend An Act entitled An Act to allow commissioned officers of the army rations and the privilege of purchasing clothing from the Quartermaster's Department, approved 17th February, 1864.

Section 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, That, in addition to the privilege conferred upon the officers described in the first section of the act aforesaid, there shall be allowed to all such officers, who are required to be mounted, while in service in the field, the privilege of purchasing not exceeding one ration, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War may, under such regulations as he may prescribe, allow officers to whom rations in kind are not issued under the first section of the act, to purchase not exceeding two rations from the Commissary Department.
